

I am writing to express my concern about allowing concentration of media ownership. I believe that an open, competitive media system is one of the foundations of democracy, particularly in this electronic age. Please refuse to allow the increasing concentration of media ownership in the hands of a very few owners. thank you for your consideration